

—Call For Artists—

Currently seeking artwork from all who live or have lived with mental health struggles. Whether your art is specifically about your experience, or used as a medium for healing, we encourage you to share your voice. Our commitment is to provide an avenue to share our unique ways of expressing our thoughts, emotions, and experiences while fostering community connection.

All mediums are welcome!

The exhibition will be open all May, with opening night on May 9th from 5-7pm at the Staunton Augusta Art Center.

Submissions are open from April 8th-22nd

*If you would like your art to be displayed in the gallery, please drop off your art and consent form to the Staunton Augusta Art Center between April 8th- April 22nd

20 South New Street, Staunton, Virginia 24401

Drop off times: Tuesday-Friday: 1-4pm | Saturday: 10am-4pm | Sunday: 10am-2pm

*Artwork must be picked up from June 3rd - June 8th during the Art Center's normal business hours. If unable to do so, please contact us at info@saartcenter.org.

Consent Form Art A Voice:

Name:

Art Title:

Medium:

Email:

Phone:

By signing below you agree for your piece to be displayed from May - June at the Staunton Augusta Art Center for the Art A Voice Art Exhibit. Furthermore by signing you agree to pick your work up at 20 S New Street between June 3rd - June 8th during the hours of 1-5 on weekdays or 10-2 on weekends, and acknowledge that work left beyond that date may become forfeit.

Signature:

Please let us know if you would like to remain anonymous (yes or no):

To be eligible for the Hummingbird Award, please tell us a bit about your mental health journey and how your Art relates to it (Optional).....

Please note, in order for your work to be returned, this form must be attached to your piece and completed with Name and Contact info. 2D mediums please attach the form to the back of the piece. 3D mediums please tape the form to the piece, this will be removed when displayed.